

VÕIDUPÜHA JA JAANIPÄEVA TÄHISTAMINE

Victory Day and St John's day celebrations at Adelaide Estonian House.

For Estonians, Jaanipäev celebrations were merged with the celebration of Võidupüha (Victory Day) during the War of Independence when Estonian forces defeated the German troops on 23 June 1919. After this battle against Estonia's traditional oppressors, Jaaniõhtu and the lighting of the traditional bonfires became linked with the ideals of independence and freedom
